

IL BORGO APARTMENT LA CAMELIA

At the center of the village of Castelfalfi, built 1300 years ago, there is La Camelia apartment. Renovated in every detail, it preserves intact the characteristics of its history: the terracotta floor and the wooden lintels evoke the charm of the Tuscan countryside and local craftsmanship. La Camelia is characterized by open and bright spaces, furnished with taste and attention to details. From the bedroom there is the entrance to the large terrace, from which opens a majestic view of the valleys, a view in which to get lost in the company of an excellent glass of Tuscan wine.
